What is the School Advisory Forum (SAF)?

School Advisory Forums (SAFs) were created by Broward County Public schools as a venue of communication for parents, teachers, administrators, and community members. The main goals of the School Advisory Forum are information sharing and problem solving.

Information Sharing

The SAF chair attends monthly area meetings to get information from the area, school district, and the community about issues affecting education and the schools. Information from individual schools is shared upward. Area concerns are then brought up to the district advisory level and then presented to the School Board when applicable. Information is also looped from the district back down to the Areas and then individual schools.

Problem Solving

Often problems brought up at school SAF meetings may be resolved at the meeting or at the school level. Asking questions helps everyone. It's likely if one person has a question, many more do as well. As previously mentioned, problems which affect more than one school (or are likely to) may be brought to the Area Advisory Council and upward.

Get Involved!

We want to hear from you! Attend as many or as few SAF meetings as you would like. The more input given, the more information can be shared and the more problems we can solve. Contact your SAF chair or the school for more information.
