#1 - Items of Interest

The Broward County School Board voted to approve revisions to the 2011/12 school year calendar specific to Thanksgiving week.

Throughout the 2011/12 budgeting process, the District has considered the use of furlough days as one option to assist in balancing the budget.

As part of the approved furlough plan, schools will be closed an additional two days during Thanksgiving week – November 21-22, 2011. Under the current school year calendar, schools and District offices are also closed November 23-25.
