It is important to note for FCAT, ELLs must have access to an English-to-heritage language translation dictionary and/or heritage language-to-English translation dictionary, such as those made available to ELLs in an instructional setting. However, a dictionary providing definitions written exclusively in the heritage language or in English may not be provided. Use of electronic dictionaries is strictly prohibited and may be cause for invalidation. Please refer to the FCAT Test Administration Manual for specifications.

Hispanic American Biographies	Heinemann/Raintree Learning Resources            Maribel Ariano            Tel: (954) 431-6992            Tel: (888) 454-2279  mariano@comcast.net	Biographies of Hispanic-American men and women from the 1940s to the 1970s make revealing connections between the subject-at-hand and his or her contemporaries.
African American Biographies		These biographies tell the stories of musicians, writers, and actors whose perseverance and unique qualities continue to set examples today. Those who overcame adversity and hardship will inspire readers.
The Holocaust		Prelude to the Holocaust, Art, Music, and Writings from the Holocaust, The Camp System, Resistance to the Nazis, and Viewing the Holocaust Today are titles included to educate students about the history of the Holocaust.
Multicultural Classroom Libraries		In these classic three-part series history, archaeological evidence, and primary source material combine to vividly portray daily life in ancient cultures. Each book examines a specific aspect in depth, allowing readers to make comparisons with their own lives.
We Are America		The journeys of real immigrants form the backdrop for this series about ethnic cultures that have flourished in America. Beginning with life in the home country, each book details the experience of coming to the United States.
American Lives		Explores the lives of American people who did great things for the United States. Students will learn about these important people and what they were like. They will read about the person's family, childhood, school years, working years, and accomplishments.
Hands-On American History		This series combines history and hands-on activities to create books, providing historical and cultural background about the featured era.
Picture the Past		Learn basic history by visiting communities from our past. Each book is filled with photos of important political and geographical events through the lens of everyday life.
Americans at War: The Civil War		Investigate wars from multiple angles: the battles, the people and the home front, and their significance.
Point of Impact Social Studies Science		Examines immediate and far-reaching consequences of important historical events, with special emphasis on cause and effect. Includes titles such as Assassination in Sarajevo: The Trigger of World War I, The Fall of the Berlin Wall, The Cold War Ends, The Irish Famine: The Birth of Irish America, Pearl Harbor: The U.S. Enters World War II, The Printing Press: A Breakthrough in Communication, Hiroshima: The Shadow of the Bomb, etc.
Witness to History		Primary source accounts of history add an unmatched authenticity to this series. Each book introduces the period and the available sources, justifying we can rely on them, who produced them, or why they survived.
