

Success Measures

The Florida Department of Education has created a new Success Measures website where parents, students and teachers can access in-depth information about all of Florida's student assessments in a timely and meaningful way: <http://www.fldoe.org/successmeasures/>. This site includes a list of assessments, information on why the FCAT is changing, links to the Sunshine State Standards, schedules and other assessment resources.