

HIGH SCHOOL HOMEWORK POLICY

WHAT'S NEW FOR 2009-2010?

- 🍏 The School Board has adopted a homework policy to begin with the 2009-2010 school year.
- 🍏 A summary of the policy includes that homework:
 - reinforces principles, skills, concepts, and information taught in the classroom
 - is meaningful and appropriate to the ability and instructional level of students
 - support creative, logical, critical and analytical thinking
 - fosters self-discipline, self motivation and the wise and orderly use of time
 - be adequately explained by teachers and clearly understood by parents
 - requiring going to the public library will include a weekend to accommodate working families
- 🍏 A guideline is that a student should have minutes of homework approximate to their grade level times 10.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO?

- 🍏 Share information with administration and faculty.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF YOU DON'T?

- 🍏 Parents may challenge the amount and/or type of home work provided.

WHO NEEDS TO KNOW?

- 🍏 Assistant Principals
- 🍏 Teachers
- 🍏 Guidance Counselors
- 🍏 ESE Specialists

HOW WILL YOU COMMUNICATE FOLLOW-UP?

- 🍏 Share information at faculty meetings/bulletins and email.
