

MIDDLE SCHOOL RECOVERY PROGRAM

WHAT'S NEW FOR 2007-2008?

- Alternative High Schools (Hallandale Adult & Community, Whiddon-Rogers, and Dave Thomas West) provide a new opportunity for overage, low performing 8th grade students to build skills and transition to high school.
- The program profile: 135 eight grade students (per location) in a personalized 21st century workforce learning environment; student specific education appropriate to the student's academic level; student lead project based learning that is self paced leading to mastery demonstration of requisite content; course recovery; social and relationship skills fostered and nurtured; and career exploration with potential Technical school experiences.
- Quarterly parent seminars and student recognition events to support the student and their families.
- The North Central Area Office provides program oversight and monitoring.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO?

- Work collaboratively with the Alternative High Schools to identify and refer appropriate students.
- Communicate the opportunity to parents and forward the contacts to the Alternative High School for direct parent communication, orientation and registration.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF YOU DON'T?

- Parents will not get information they need consider the program for their student.
- Enrollment in the Middle School Recovery program is limited to 135 per location. A waiting list will be established in the event that space becomes available in the early Fall.

WHO NEEDS TO KNOW?

- Staff involved in the identification and referral of parents and students.

HOW WILL YOU COMMUNICATE FOLLOW-UP?

- The North Central Area Office and the district Dropout Prevention/Alternative Education Department will coordinate implementation procedures and keep principals informed.
