

Did I say that I could?

Added to these resources are the more than sixty thousand members of your professional organizations, MENC: National Association for Music Education and the Florida Music Educators Association (FMEA). These associations will give you a helping hand throughout your teaching career.

Where Can I Find Out More?

MENC: National Association for Music Education publications can help you learn more about choosing a career in music. Call them to obtain materials or check out their website at www.menc.org

In addition, MENC and FMEA office staff will help you with information about a music career. You may obtain information from FMEA by calling or reviewing their website at www.flmusic.org. You will also have the opportunity to obtain the numbers of the presidents of the following associations that may assist you in your quest for a teaching career.

President, Florida Bandmasters Association

President, Florida College Music Educator's Association

President, Florida Collegiate Music Educators Association

President, Florida Elementary Music Educator's Association

President, Florida Music Educators Association

President, Florida Music Supervisor's Association

President, Florida Orchestra Association

President, Florida Vocal Association

Publication of this brochure has been made possible through the Florida Music Educators Association

Derived, with permission, from the MENC: National Association for Music Education brochure of the same name.

MENC: National Association for Music Education
1806 Robert Fulton Drive
Reston, Virginia 22091
(800) 336-3768

FMEA: Florida Music Educators Association
207 Office Plaza Drive
Tallahassee, FL 32301
1 (800) 301-FMEA
www.flmusiced.org

Why Music?

Why Music?