

LIBRARY MEDIA ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Target Indicators	In Progress	Progressing	Excelling
Committee Appointment	The Library Media Advisory Committee is appointed by principal.	The Library Media Advisory Committee is selected randomly by media specialist and is representative of the learning community.	The Library Media Advisory Committee is purposefully selected by media specialist to further projected annual goals and is representative of the learning community.
Meeting Schedule	The Library Media Advisory Committee meets only if needed.	The Library Media Advisory Committee meets several times annually to review challenged materials and make recommendations for items to be purchased.	The Library Media Advisory Committee meets regularly throughout the year, and as needed, to accomplish its tasks.
Tasks and Responsibilities	The Library Media Advisory Committee informally discusses the library media program.	The Library Media Advisory Committee handles challenged materials and recommends to the media specialist purchases and new services.	The Library Media Advisory Committee assists the media specialist in establishing goals and determining objectives, prioritizing needs, developing an action plan, and evaluating the library media program.