

OLD DILLARD MUSEUM AMBASSADOR

Kwanzaa is in the Air

Just a little about me, I am a certified art teacher for the state of Florida. I use to be a classroom teacher for 4 years. I was a guidance counselor last year at an elementary school. Presently I am a teaching artist and I am pursuing my doctorate in education with a focus on the arts. Last but not least, I am a breast cancer survivor (smile).

I want to share with you the services that I offer for Kwanzaa. All pricing is negotiable.

Cultural Event Planning: From beginning to end this 3 hour event is all about organization and collaboration as a strategic plan will implement the design of the Kwanzaa event, line up artists to perform, handle food, design flyers, and much more....(all services can be mixed and I am open to suggestions to better serve your needs as I am not sure of your vision for this event)...$4000

Storytelling: 1 hour of interactive storytelling that is loaded with drumming, songs, and lots of audience participation....$300

Kwanzaa workshops: 4 hours, this informational session is interactive with stories, songs, handouts in addition participants will create make & take crafts related to the theme of Kwanzaa. There will be demonstrations that involve setting up a Kwanzaa table, wrapping the head with African fabric and a mini Kwanzaa attire fashion show... $675

Kwanzaa Crafts: 2.5 hours of fun as participants create a variety of Kwanzaa related Zawadi (gifts), for example: Mkeka-straw mat, Kinara-candle holder, Kwanzaa cards w/envelopes, Kwanzaa wreath and much more...$400

Please feel free to call me at 954-889-4197 if you have any questions or suggestions. Have a great day! [Image]

Peace

sista idya aka The Kwanzaa Mama aka Kim D. Harris