Upon stabilization and continued academic success, some students participate in the mainstreaming/ share-time program. These students attend a boundary or technical school placement for part of the day and Whispering Pines School for the remainder of the day. Throughout the weekly child study meeting the various teams (academic, therapeutic and behavioral) discuss barriers and analyze data to initiate the mainstreaming process, as appropriate. Teacher: "Due to the nature and severity of some student's disabilities, full participation in the academic setting may not be appropriate; however the school works hard to teach students coping strategies that will help them to access the world around them." Parent: "The resources available at WPS including therapeutic and behavioral supports have increased my child's ability to effectively access the curriculum. Administration is available for communication both in person and on the phone." Principal: Students who are able to transfer skills across multiple settings are considered for mainstreaming opportunities and less structured education environments. Behavior Specialist: " We consistently review behavior data to monitor for trends. The school leadership team analyzes data quarterly to monitor and evaluate progress toward meeting goals related to inclusive practices in the school. All stakeholder groups are represented and involved in a collaborative system of decision making to implement and improve inclusive practices across the school. The school provides access to goals related to short- and long-term improvement efforts on the school website and on request in the front office. Schools that have not included goals related to the BPIE indicators in their improvement plan would rate this indicator as Not Yet. | | | | | | | |
| Comments: Consistent and pro-active parent/guardian participation is welcomed and encouraged. Due to the geographic area for our school (the entire southern half of the county) parent participation is often via phone conference. Our school social worker visits students' homes if needed to increase participation. THE BPIE team was both diverse and consistent in participation. Volunteer/Community member: "Working with students at Whispering Pines has proven that students have a keen understanding of their individual goals and are working towards developing skills to attain them." Curriculum Coach: "Data chats have helped our team look at scores and progress from different angles and develop plans in an effort to prepare students to be college and career ready." SAC Chair/Off campus facilitator/SLP: "Goals drive instructional practices and give clear insight to what the students actual needs are." | | | | | | | |

| Comments: The ESE Specialist, Mainstream Coordinator and Community Liaison monitor student progress and communicate with the mainstream school on a consistent basis. The aforementioned staff also advocate for the students' needs at the general education site and follow-up with families as applicable. If additional supports are needed from the on campus staff, the mainstream coordinator meets with the student's mental health therapist to determine a plan of action. Therapist/Mainstreaming Coordinator: "Communication with the General Education school has benefited the student. Students have been welcomed and their success is a source of pride for both WPS and the boundary school. As so much thought, effort and data goes into the mainstreaming process, the students are ready for the support to be faded. It has been a positive experience for the students who were ready to experience school in a larger environment without therapeutic and behavioral supports throughout the entire day." ESE Specialist: As the ESE Specialist, I plan and coordinate the mainstream meetings with the sending school. It is a collaborative effort between both schools to make sure the transition is successful and smooth. | | | | | | | |

| Suggested Measures: Documentation of school administrator requests for information (e.g., emails, memos) to the district office, roster of SWDs in school's zone who are not attending the school. Note: Aligns with District BPIE Indicator #3. This indicator addresses the practice of placing SWDs in schools based primarily on exceptionality, label or services needed, rather than identifying and allocating resources for all SWDs to receive educational services in their neighborhood school or school of choice. Students who are transported to attend other schools are at risk of disenfranchisement from the communities within which they live and lack opportunities to build natural relationships among the students in the assigned school. With the practice of placing SWDs at schools based on their exceptionality, unintended consequences include further isolation of students with significant disabilities and barriers to scheduling SWDs into heterogeneous classrooms that have natural proportions of students with and without disabilities. Please see the Appendices: Glossary of Terms section for definition of the above term natural proportions. Comments: Representation from the general education/boundary school is present at all Individualized Education Plan meetings where placement is discussed. Student progress towards mainstreaming is discussed on a quarterly basis for all students at the child study meetings. School staff work directly with both boundary schools and technical education settings to coordinate mainstreaming (inclusive of scheduling, transportation, ESE support for classes, etc.). Whispering Pines School has a mainstreaming coordinator who monitors the success of such placements and monitors supports provided. Mainstreaming Coordinator: "While students are initially placed at WPS based upon their emotional needs and services offered at our school, staff works with students to develop a sense of self determination and ability to advocate." ESE Specialist: "Since we are one of the most restrictive environments in Broward County, we, as a team, meet weekly to discuss students and their progress, We have processes in place for students, when ready, to mainstream back to their boundary school. We have a mainstreaming process which eases students back in to their general education setting while maintaining the therapeutic supports until they are ready to fully attend the general education setting." | | | | | | | |
