The leadership team reviews and shares the language and intent of s. 1003.57(1)(f), F.S., with all staff and stakeholders. Once every three years, the school completes a BPIE assessment and reports the results of all planned short- and long-term improvement efforts to the district. The school leadership team analyzes data quarterly to monitor and evaluate progress toward meeting goals related to inclusive practices in the school. All stakeholder groups are represented and involved in a collaborative system of decision making to implement and improve inclusive practices across the school. The school provides access to goals related to short- and long-term improvement efforts on the school website and on request in the front office. The school handbook or website includes information on the school's process of shared decision making. Suggested Measures: Copy of goals related to short- and long-term improvement efforts, including distribution process (e.g., website, front office request form), data reports, meeting notes and schedule, roster and schedule of school leadership team meetings showing diverse representation.

Note: Please see the Appendices: Glossary of Terms and Resources sections for information about the terms found above: stakeholder groups and s. 1003.57(1)(f), F.S. Schools that have specific goals related to the BPIE indicators currently identified in an improvement plan would rate themselves as Partially Implemented. Schools that have not included goals related to the BPIE indicators in their improvement plan would rate this indicator as Not Yet.

The school has a key person who oversees, coordinates and monitors the implementation of best practices for inclusive education for all SWDs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There are clearly identified roles and responsibilities for the key person (e.g., ongoing communication, data analysis and progress monitoring of BPIE goals). The key person is responsible for oversight and coordination of goals and action steps related to inclusive best practices. School administrators advocate for all SWDs to have the same school choice options as students without disabilities to ensure all SWDs receive educational services in their neighborhood school or school of choice.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The principal contacts the district to obtain information about SWDs who do not attend the school because of the type or severity of their disability or perceived lack of services available at the school. The principal requests services and supports to follow SWDs in the school. The school has a diverse student population that reflects the full range of students who live in the neighborhood school zone, including those with significant disabilities. The school is equipped to provide educational services to all students. Families perceive the school as being able to address their child's needs, regardless of the type or severity of disability. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The Principal works collaboratively with the District to ensure that all students SWD have access to the school programming to support their educational needs.
Suggested Measures: Documentation of school administrator requests for information (e.g., emails, memos) to the district office, roster of SWDs in school's zone who are not attending the school. Note: Aligns with District BPIE Indicator #3. This indicator addresses the practice of placing SWDs in schools based primarily on exceptionality, label or services needed, rather than identifying and allocating resources for all SWDs to receive educational services in their neighborhood school or school of choice. Students who are transported to attend other schools are at risk of disenfranchisement from the communities within which they live and lack opportunities to build natural relationships among the students in the assigned school. With the practice of placing SWDs at schools based on their exceptionality, unintended consequences include further isolation of students with significant disabilities and barriers to scheduling SWDs into heterogeneous classrooms that have natural proportions of students with and without disabilities. Please see the Appendices: Glossary of Terms section for definition of the above term natural proportions. Comments:

The school has targets to increase the number of SWDs, ages 3 - 5, who receive special education and related services in inclusive classes with peers without disabilities. General and special education teachers regularly collaborate to plan and implement weekly lessons based on Florida standards for Pre-K and kindergarten. Curriculum adaptations, such as changing the physical or social environment, placing materials in optimal positions or heights, breaking down steps in a task, assistive devices, alternate materials, etc., are considered as easy-to-implement interventions All children receive supports and interventions necessary to ensure developmentally appropriate progress prior to referral for special education services and programs. Developmentally appropriate behavior supports are provided for students. School administrators communicate expectations for all school personnel to share responsibility for all of the students in their building and consider all SWDs as general education students first.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Administrators clearly and consistently articulate the following expectations for all school personnel during faculty meetings, School Advisory Committee meetings, PLCs, staff newsletters, etc.: -- General and special education teachers are expected to share instructional and behavioral support responsibilities for SWDs in each classroom and other school settings. -- SWDs are not the sole responsibility of special education personnel during academic and non-academic school activities. -- School personnel refer to special education teachers by name rather than exceptionality of students on their caseload (e.g., Mrs. Smith rather than the Autistic Teacher). -- All school personnel are trained and responsible for safety and evacuation procedures for SWDs. Administrators provide written rationale and other resources (e.g., research articles, newsletters, websites) with information and strategies on inclusive practices. Administrators survey staff to determine beliefs and attitudes about inclusive practices. 8.	School administrators facilitate the use of resources, by school personnel, to implement best practices for inclusive education for all SWDs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> School administrators obtain and allocate resources (e.g., personnel and materials) to implement effective inclusive practices. School administrators provide and monitor the use of resources across all school teams, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -- Supplemental materials for core subject areas related to all academic standards; -- Text sets with differentiated reading levels; -- Accessible instructional materials, (e.g., textbook set for homework and textbooks with alternate formats: audio/electronic, braille, large print); -- Assistive technologies, supports and services; -- Time for instructional planning; and -- Allocation of personnel aligned with in-class support needs of students (e.g., reading and math coaches, paraprofessionals, therapists). 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Administration uses all funds available to gain the resources needed to work with and meet the educational needs of SWD's. Reading and math resources are provided to teachers and all support staff: Ex. Intervention teachers, push-in/pull-out for academic needs, educational support professionals as needed.

Suggested Measures: Achievement data for all SWDs. Inventory lists available to all staff indicating supplemental materials available for use with all students across all content areas and grade levels; schedules of teacher planning time; and minutes from planning meetings with support personnel, coaches and/or administrators.

Note: Aligns with District BPIE Indicator #5. Within an MTSS, all educators should have access to a variety of resources that include concepts of universal design so that all students have access to and can make progress in the general education curriculum.

There are designated bus monitors in each school who are responsible for overseeing bus procedures and identifying potential problems. Suggested Measures: Bus schedules and rosters, school site map (including bus locations), field trip documentation; documentation of emails or other communication between school leaders and district transportation office requesting changes to bus schedules.

Note: Aligns with District BPIE Indicator #9. Although school leaders may not have full control over district bus schedules, they can advocate for the district to make changes to schedules so that no students lose academic time on task as a result of scheduled bus service. School leaders can also make requests to the district through work orders that include the construction of curb cuts at school bus drop-off and pick-up locations designated for all buses.

Suggested Measures: School's professional development plan, agendas/sign-in sheets from professional development activities and record of follow-up activities, master schedule (showing collaborative planning time), records of technical assistance activities and follow-up activities for school personnel.

Note: Aligns with District BPIE Indicators #13-#17 and #19. Please see the Appendices: Glossary of Terms for definitions of the above terms: access points, collaborative teams and visual supports. It is recommended that school administrators maintain an active role in the provision of PD activities for their faculty and staff. This includes participation in PD activities and monitoring of progress toward meeting PD goals for individual teachers and/or teams.

17.	School administrators ensure that collaborative planning time is used productively and reflected in general and special education staff schedules and instructional plans.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The school master schedule reflects collaborative planning time for collaborative teaching teams. Administrators provide structures for release time for planning (e.g., floating substitute teachers, duty release). Administrators ensure that teacher duty assignments are distributed across all staff, allowing time for collaborative teachers to plan. The principal schedules time for secondary special education teachers, assigned to different departments (e.g., science, English, history, math) to meet with general education teams to discuss the progress of students they have in common. Monthly PD days are designated for teams (including ESE and general education teachers) to plan and discuss grade-level or subject-area concerns related to curriculum and student interventions. Agendas and logs from collaborative planning sessions are available for administrators to review. There is evidence that lesson plans are developed collaboratively and include shared roles and responsibilities for instruction and assessment. There is a schedule and record of PLCs related to the review of student work and instructional planning. Suggested Measures: Master schedule, teachers' lesson plans, agendas and logs from collaborative planning sessions, walk-through notes from teacher planning meetings.
Note: Aligns with District BPIE Indicator #15. School administrators are encouraged to provide support to teams during planning time, such as oversight of and support for team planning agendas and activities, assistance with team problem solving and provision of resources for planning time (e.g., release of regularly scheduled bus duty time for collaborative planning).

When developing the school's master schedule, SWDs are scheduled first. The school master schedule reflects a variety of service delivery models used across the school, including co-teaching, support facilitation and consultation. When providing in-class supports, teachers select and use various approaches, such as station teaching, parallel teaching and alternative teaching, based on the needs of the students and the intended outcome(s) of instruction and assessment. Family members of SWDs are contributing members of school decision-making groups.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> School administrators actively recruit family members of SWDs to participate in school decision-making groups, including the School Advisory Council. Family members of SWDs are active members of groups such as the Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) and school sub-committees (e.g., Fall Festival, Band Boosters). Family members of SWDs participate in school decision-making based upon annual measurable outcome data for students with and without disabilities. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	School administration actively recruits all parents to participate in school decision making groups such as PTA, School Advisory Council, etc through weekly parent link via email or phone, and through our monthly Panther Paws newsletter. On the PTA and SAC there is a parent who is appointed to represent students with SWD's

Suggested Measures: Decision-making group rosters, meeting notes.

Note: In addition to the School Advisory Council, family members of students with disabilities should be included in all decision-making groups that include family members of students without disabilities, such as the PTA and school sub-committees.

30.	Learning opportunities and resources are provided to families of SWDs as a result of needs assessments and student data.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Data are gathered from families via surveys, interviews, focus groups, suggestion box, etc. Learning opportunities and resources are identified and provided to families based on family surveys or interviews, school climate surveys, IEP goals and student data. Information and strategies are provided on topics such as helping with homework, test preparation, understanding LRE and inclusion, developing meaningful IEP goals and postsecondary school opportunities. Schedule of ongoing learning opportunities is provided to all families via newsletter, website, emails, etc. Family learning opportunities include content and activities that are translated for families whose first language is not English. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	On a yearly basis the district puts out a survey to all parents of students with SWD's. Based on the results of this survey learning opportunities and resources are provided to parents as needed. Several yearly events are held which offer the parents the opportunity to attend presentations on various topics : Touch Math, Visualizing and Verbalizing, homework help, social skills, behavioral, etc Parents are given weekly updates from the principal via the parent link through phone and/ or email. Parents receive current information through a monthly Panther Paws newsletter. ASD Coach and ESE Specialist regularly sends out flyers of training and special event opportunities to parents of students with Autism and varying exceptionalities.

Suggested Measures: List of resources/learning opportunities available to families, survey samples and results, samples of information in languages other than English.

Note: Family members play an important role in facilitating their child's success in school when they are given complete and accurate information. It is important for families to understand ways to support their child's learning goals and objectives at home and in community settings.

31. When communicating with families of SWDs, all personnel consider family members as a resource and obtain their input in planning and problem solving.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A fifth grade co-teaching team sends a letter home during the first week of school that gives a broad outline of what the students will learn, homework and grading procedures, ideas for how parents can support good study skills and homework habits, etc. Team/department meeting notes reflect family input on developing educational, behavioral and/or social strategies for their children, such as an individual PBS plan and FBA. Families receive support and resources, such as checklists or point systems, to implement behavior support plans at home and in the community. Teachers maintain ongoing communication with families to ensure support plans are consistent from school to home and community. Teachers obtain family input on creating a student profile for a student with significant behavioral support needs (e.g., interventions that have worked at home or in other settings). Structures are in place for educators and families to share ongoing information about access, equity and progress of SWDs. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	For SWD students with behavioral issues. An informal behavior plan is developed and the ESE support teacher helps to implement the plan in the general education setting in collaboration with the general education teacher. Regularly scheduled meetings with the student would be a part of the IEP and carried out in the classroom. The teacher would check student's behavioral chart and then have parent sign off on the behavioral needs. (Homework, behavior, classwork, etc.) Parents are a part of the FBA/PBIP evaluation. They give permission to test for behavior interventions and play a role in parent interviews conducted by teacher and support staff. The classroom, ESE teacher and support staff collect data on the student and an FBA is conducted. If the student needs a Positive Behavior Intervention Plan. The plan is carried out by the general education teacher and all staff members involved with the student. Parents are a part of developing the plan. Communication daily, weekly, monthly are maintained through behavior charts, IEPs, quarterly progress reports, phone calls to ensure communication is carried out for student success.

Suggested Measures: Sample correspondence, meeting notes, phone logs, planning documents.

Note: Family members are experts about their child. Their input is invaluable in identifying and providing appropriate supports for success.

33. The school uses a person-centered planning process for SWDs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is an established protocol for facilitating a smooth transition for SWDs from grade to grade and school to school. • Personnel use the Circles of Friends activity to identify natural learning and social/friendship supports for SWDs in general education contexts. • Person-centered planning is used for SWDs to plan for independent living, postsecondary education and careers. • SWDs have opportunities to learn and practice skills associated with self-determination. • Personnel use the Students Transitioning to Adult Roles (STAR) process for SWDs transitioning from school to postsecondary education. • Personnel use the Planning Alternative Tomorrows with Hope (PATH) or McGill Action Planning System (MAPS) to determine person-centered planning goals for the future in general education and community contexts. • The school involves adult and community agencies and postsecondary education institutions in person-centered planning. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Parkside holds transition meetings for our pre-school students for proper placement. We do a Pre-K child study to look at proper placement for the transition into kindergarten which incorporates the school staff, parents, home school and the school psychologist to ensure a smooth transition and proper placement. Transitioning for middle school students is done in a similar fashion. Meetings may be held and/or discussions are held with parents about programming for their child. Parkside as a school holds transition IEP meetings, as needed, to ensure the transition meets the students individual needs and is in place for a smooth transition to middle school. Students IEP's are reflected and communicated with each new teacher by the support facilitator so the accommodations and support will be carried out within the classroom. Transition meetings are held by the Principal to ensure proper placement for SWD is carried out so that their individual needs are being met in the context of the general curriculum.

Suggested Measures: Policies and procedures for transition, STAR, PATH, MAPS, and Circles of Friends graphics and participant rosters, IEP goals, postschool outcomes data.

Note: The input of all stakeholders, including family members and peers, should be considered in determining the supports needed for SWDs to achieve the most desirable outcome. Please see the Appendices: Glossary of Terms for definitions of the terms person centered planning and self-determination. For more information on STAR, PATH, MAPS and Circles of Friends, please refer to the Appendices: Resource/Publications section.

34. School uses a team decision-making process to ensure SWDs transition from grade to grade, school to school and district to district to ensure placement in the LRE.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports are in place and are passed seamlessly between sending and receiving parties. • Vertical planning between teachers from school to school includes sharing information and effective instructional or behavioral supports for individual students. • Administrators proactively ensure that supports follow all SWDs as they transition from grade to grade, school to school and district to district. • Structures are in place for the educational and transition teams to communicate and plan postschool opportunities for SWDs. • Schools identify and share individual needs of SWDs, through the flexible scheduling process, as they transition from grade to grade. • In the spring, the school coordinates an orientation for students moving from elementary to middle school or middle to high school, including giving a tour of the building, reviewing important information in the student handbook and orienting students to school procedures. • The school provides opportunities and transportation for a student with autism spectrum disorder, transitioning from one school to another, to spend time in the receiving school’s classrooms for a week, with appropriate support (e.g., paraprofessional, visual schedule, social supports). 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The IEP team meets to ensure SWD needs will be met from year to year. We hold annual review meetings and interim review meeting to make sure that the IEP is being carried out in the context of the general curriculum. The administrator and support staff meet with each grade level team for articulation meetings to make sure that the IEP will be carried out with each new teacher. This ensures that the students are placed in a general education environment where the IEP will be implemented successfully.

Suggested Measures: Teacher, family and administrator interviews, district and school articulation plans, procedures and policies.

Note: Aligns with District BPIE Indicator #10.
