

Marjory Stoneman Douglas Vision and Mission Statements

The vision of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School is to promote global awareness in a collaborative learning community of rigor and relevance, emphasizing academic excellence through critical thinking and character development in a technologically–enriched environment.

The mission of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School is to provide rich educational opportunities in a student-centered learning environment to a diverse population of learners.