Agenda

Amanda Soeder, Charles Herbert, Amy Major, Drew Gerlach, Rihanna Ali, Danielle Dunfee, Jeanette Kraft

II. Data Update/BSA..... Mr. Gerlach
Data is going well, 3,4,5th grade ELL clusters were reviewed. We teach for a set amount of time and then assess on those 6 standards for ELL. 8-10 questions, cold read and allows us to get critical feedback on how we were doing teaching those standards. Area of weakness is our lowest quartile students. We are looking at each child and doing an itemized review and see where they are low on each standard and provide a detailed and intensive program for those children. Each teacher was asked about schedule and this year the schedule was made to fit the teacher’s schedule instead of when the interventionist was available. This will provide a better program to help the students that are struggling and provide the stepping stones to advance to the higher standard. Scaffolding the standards and learning to help the students to advance to the more difficult standard that they are struggling with.

Academic camps are starting at the end of January. We need the lowest quartile child to join and all aftercare students to join and attend the camps. Students were offered opportunity to stay till 6:00 for free.

III. DBES Aftercare Report..... Mr. Gerlach
Needs assessment done every year. One for safety and one for protocol- certificate was granted and we came through with flying colors. We scored 3 points less than the previous years- a tad bit lower than previous years. Staff communications and parent interaction was scored high. The activity schedule was a little lower than last year, one location wasn’t correct and overall scores were wonderful. Academic
