- Grade Level Reports
 - Kindergarten – the children have been practicing for their Thanksgiving program and feast
 - 1st grade – October has been focusing on plant growth mainly with pumpkins. In November – phonics and phonemic awareness using I-ready. Writing letters to soldiers and using graphic organizers – what they are thankful and why
 - 2nd grade – Ms. Cooper is collecting candy and letters to be sent to soldiers. They are participating in the Seed Project – sustaining the planet by planting and eating well. Native American study – each teacher will study various tribes (living styles, clothing, food) and sharing with other classes.
 - 3rd grade -

- 4th grade – Reading Into Literature. Informative writing into opinion using the writing process. Multiplication and division in math. Plant and animal adaptations in science and the Everglades in Social Studies.
- 5th grade -
- Principal's Update - Mrs. Diamond reported the following for Ms. Tyghter:

A successful Barnes and Noble evening and thank you for all those who participated.

Due to the increase in Title 1 funding, we are able to purchase phonics materials for K, 1, and 2 (supplemental materials).

Veterans can come in and have lunch with students
NEE is hosting a Thanksgiving food drive. Each grade level will be responsible for a different food.

K – Macaroni and cheese/instant mashed potatoes

1 – Dessert mixes

2 – Peanut butter/turkey gravy/tuna/canned meats

3 –canned fruit, cranberry sauce applesauce/jelly

4 – veggies/yams/sweet potatoes/marshmallows

5 – Spaghetti-Os/Chef Boyardee/canned stews & Soups

Latinos in Action is up and running. 39 high school students are working with our students on literacy and math using resources provided by NEE

PTA is involved in the Hollywood Beach Clean Up Saturday, November 11 from 9-11am. Free parking is available. 8 years old and up. Wear your NEE Shirts.

Titan Buck store – incentives should be available to the Chess club

The administration wishes everyone a very happy Thanksgiving!

- iZone Meeting - February 22, 2019, Nova Middle School Media Center, 3:00pm
 - iZone Meeting – April 5, 2019, Nova Middle School Media Center, 9:45am
 - Open Agenda
 - Coffee With a Cop – anonymous (students may be shy) - Bullying Box. Info from Blanche. Maybe a box for K-2 and 3-5
- Officer Deputizes children – Crime Watch Club
(see something, say something)
- Kings and Queens (Orangebrook) - behavior modification
- Code Red events – traumatic – how can they be better addressed? We have to follow protocol. Find a way to alleviate stress. How can we handle the aftereffect of a drill or event? Older students seem to be more stressed than younger. How do other schools respond? Maybe bags with small play items or lollipops. A district safety committee meeting will be held on November 7 at 6:30 pm at Indian Ridge Middle.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:37 pm.

Next SAC Meeting:
