Reports

Principals Report: 5:33pm

- Cobra Talk will be continuing this year. Cobra Talk is a program where identified 11th and 12th grade students offer a safe space for students to come and express themselves freely. The Tshirt design for this year will be announced soon.
- Boyd Anderson has developed a Social Emotional Learning (SEL) Clinic where certain students who are doing poorly academically are called into guidance during Personalization periods to talk openly about academics, home life, or anything else that the student may need.
- On October 25th the school zone is going to have a presentation on Social Emotional Learning at Lauderdale Lakes Middle, we encourage all parents to come and bring others in the community.
- There is a college fair taking place at NSU on October 22.
- October 28th there is a presentation at Boyd Anderson to discuss filling out the FAFSA, all parents are encouraged to attend to learn about this necessary resource.
- October 31 is the college fair during school hours here at Boyd Anderson, 55-60 Colleges, Universities, and branches of the military will attend.
- Field trips: Ms. Redman took students to Broward General Hospital where they were exposed to medical procedures such as intubation and ultrasounds. Ms. Creary took students to Herbiger Manufacturing to learn about manufacturing careers. Ms. Duperval is planning a trip in March to L.A. and is looking for about 25 students to go.
- We are fully staffed with the exception of one English teacher.
