- V. Title 1 Addendum 2018 – 2019 – Discussion - Monitor – Parent Input
- Professional Development trainings to strengthen Tier 1 instructions are going well.
- VI. School Improvement Plan 2018 – 2019nMid-Year Report
- Flamingo Elementary didn't use the District's Benchmark Assessment. Instead we used SchoolCity in order to administer it paper-based.
 - As a result, teachers in grades 3-5 are able to focus on standards that students did not master and remediate and reteach.
 - Resources and plans are in place for the students to be successful
- VII. FACE (Family and Community Engagement)
We had a successful ESOL Family Night on Communication between home and school occurs on a regular basis via parent links, newsletters, and flyers.
- VIII. Principal's Report
- ELA and Math camps have been running for several weeks. ELL camps started meeting last week.
 - Policy 2120- Emergency Codes Prevention and Preparedness
 - Mandatory emergency trainings, code reds have to be done as frequently as fire drills, staff members must take appropriate actions that may impact the safety of staff and visitors
 - Policy 2150- Safer Spaces
 - Staff will identify the "safest" places in the classroom, administration will be walking the classrooms, it will be marked on the wall, in every school board building, the process has not been established yet.
- IX. Adjournment
- Meet called to adjournment at 2:55 by Mrs. Patrick. Motioned by Ileana and seconded by Mrs. Morris.
