- Student-Led Conferences this week
- Book Fair until 23rd
- Reading Celebrations on May 31st
- No School on May 25th, 28th
- ID badge-maker ordered; all kids will be wearing them in August; discussion about lanyards vs clips vs magnets
- New principal visits May 22nd
- New chainsaw blades on order, as dead hanging branches a concern

SAC Officer Election for 2018-2019:

- Same crew will continue! Nancy John, Maria Meireles, and Jessica Gittens

SAC Membership 2018-2019:

- Parents and attending members voted

School Improvement Plan (SIP):

- Mrs. Stroup and Mrs. John went to year-end SIP overview
- Will continue doing what we already do!
- SIP Schoolwide Behavior Plan was completed and uploaded by Veronica
- SIP Development Community Input- attendance and support is greatly appreciated in order to continue SAC at Country Hills

Teacher Training Update: Mrs. Koerner updated

- CANVAS Training- Gittens
- K-3 Teachers- Responsive Literacy Components-Edwards, Rosenthal, Maniscalco, Tait, Head
- Behavior Principles for students with special needs- Gittens and House

PTA Update:

- Last meeting is May 22nd
- New board voting will occur

- Sunshine Math-keep it schoolwide or leave up to individual teachers?
 - Some parents/teachers say it is stressful and ineffective, and not fair to all students; will think of alternatives; PTA can send a survey to teachers to see who is interested in using it
- Waiting on Eagle Ridge and Coral Springs Middle to see how much they collected for MSD magnet/window cling fundraiser; CHE raised $6,200 which will be divided up by June 1st, to go to injured survivors
- Need spot to plant “Jamie” tree
- Mrs. Brenner attended the PEC meeting on May 9th-lots of parents in attendance; big concern with School Board not working with CSPD
- What do people want in the garden?

Questions/Concerns:

-Mrs. Johnson asked about school security meeting-CHE crew was here and ready, but man that came only discussed Smart Bond money and a new roof, HVAC system, and major construction projects; Mrs. Stroup wanted new principal to attend informational meetings like this; safety was not discussed; apparently a walk about was done without notification and no update was given.

-Mrs. Brenner discussed Code Red Backpacks and contents

-Next SAC meeting is September 24th. Officers will provide food for first meeting.

Mrs. John called the meeting to a close at 7:46pm, motioned by Mrs. Read and seconded by Mrs. Johnson.
