History

- Needs Assessment

 - BCPS identified $3 Billion in needed improvements and renovations through a District-wide Needs Assessment.
- Adopted District Educational Facilities Plan (ADEFP)

 - BCPS prioritized needs through the ADEFP budget process into a plan called the SMART (Safety, Music & Art, Athletics, Renovation and Technology) Program and began seeking public support for a bond referendum.
- General Obligation Bond (GOB)

 - $800 Million General Obligation Bond was passed by Voters on November 4, 2014.
- Program Management

 - BCPS hired CBRE | Heery & Atkins as the program management team (PMO), Owner's Rep (CBRE) and Cost/Program Controls (Atkins) as a team of consultants to manage SMART Program.
- Project Initiation

 - School projects are initiated in sequential order based on the year funding is released.
- Phased Process

 - Each project goes through a six phase process for implementation of improvements.
 - During the Design Phase (Phase 3), the Project Charter meeting is held to inform the school community about the scope of work initiated and schedule for how projects will be implemented at their individual schools.
