- IV. SIP Committee Updates
 - SIP Science: Making sure 5th Grade has all the materials to practice testing. Stemsscopes came to organize bins.
 - SIP Writing: No specific updates. Most of our students are writing on topic. A growing progressive movement in writing.
 - SIP Reading: Literacy week coming up Monday (Mystery reader) Tuesday (Neon Color to the school) Wednesday (Wacky hair day) Thursday (Camouflage) Friday (flashlight Friday)
 - SIP Wellness: (Mayor's Challenge), AYSO Partnership program email
- V. PTA Updates- no PTA representative present
- VI. Administration Updates
 - Ms. Del Barrio just discussed events coming up including the Mayor's Challenge.
- VII. School Accountability Funds- Technology. We discussed what school accountability funds are and the fact that there was an overage that Ms. Devaughn would like spend on technology. It was asked how much money was in question. Mrs. DeVaughn was not present to answer that. It was decided that we would need to discuss this in January when Ms. Devaughn is there with more information.

VIII. A+ Money Ballot

A ballot was proposed written the same as last years' ballot but with this years' award money and approximate staff members. Some members asked clarifying questions about how the ballot was written. Mr. Romero asked which option was voted on the previous year. Ms. Peterson mentioned that some schools give money back to the students in some way. That was considered. A couple of scenarios and questions were discussed. Ultimately nobody had a solid additional ballot option. The ballot was voted on by voting members unanimously.

IX. SAF Updates:

Jan 31st Parent University 6:30pm. Topic is Cyber security. IT specialists will be present. Parents should bring devices. Administration will help publicize this event. This will be a zone event.

X. Any Additional New Business- none.

XI. Adjournment- Mr. Loew approved, Mr. Romero seconded.
