SUBJECT: FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION MISCALCULATION OF AYP DATA

The Florida Department of Education (DOE) announced today that an error occurred in the calculation Students with Disabilities (SWD) using alternate assessments to meet proficiency targets in Reading and Mathematics. The error does not involve participation rates.

As a result of a recalculation including results of alternate assessments:

- 60 schools in Florida changed from an AYP classification of not meeting AYP to meeting AYP,
- 68 schools statewide changed from meeting AYP to not meeting AYP, and
- an additional 208 schools throughout the state who initially were designated as AYP Not Determined have now been designated as not meeting AYP.

In Broward several schools' AYP designation were affected as follows:

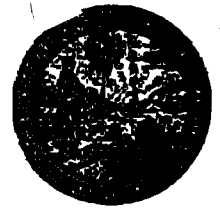

- Two schools (Ramblewood Middle, Sandpiper Elementary) changed from not meeting AYP to meeting AYP.
- Four Broward schools (Chancellor at North Lauderdale Charter School, Liberty Elementary, Pompano Beach High School, Silver Shores Elementary) were changed from meeting AYP to not meeting AYP.
- Nine schools (ARC Broward, Inc., Broward Intensive Halfway, Millennium Middle, New Renaissance Middle, Park Lakes Elementary, South Florida Intensive Halfway, South Pines Academy, Thompson Academy and Westglades Middle) previously identified as AYP Not Determined are now classified as not meeting AYP. Please note that South Florida Intensive Halfway is no longer in operation.
